Chapter 1- Preliminary and Restrictions on Insider Trading

1.1 Background

“Insider Trading”, simply refers to the act of trading in a Company’s securities while possessing unpublished price-sensitive information. It also includes the acquisition or sharing of such information by individuals closely associated with the company, such as employees, directors, their relatives, and other connected persons.

The Securities and Exchange Board (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“the Regulations”) seeks to curtail such trading and govern the conduct of Insiders, Connected persons and ‘persons who are deemed to be connected on matters relating to Insider Trading.

Insider Trading involves trading in the securities of a company listed, by connected or any persons in possession of or with access to unpublished price sensitive information not available to the general public, who can take advantage of or benefit from such unpublished price sensitive information to gain profits / avoid losses. Trading in securities by an ‘insider’ is regarded unfair when it is predicated upon utilisation of ‘inside’ information to profit at the expense of other investors who do not have access to the same information.

Godrej Industries Limited’s Insider Trading - Code of Conduct was first adopted with effect from November 30, 2002.

This Code of Conduct incorporates the amendments so as to align it with the new regulations, i.e., the Securities and Exchange Board (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (including any modification(s) / amendment(s) / re-enactment(s) thereof). (“Regulations”).

1.2 Objective of this Code of Conduct

This Code Policy explains what insider trading is, how employees can be sure they don’t engage in it, prohibit the communication of unpublished price sensitive information except for legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations, ensure appropriate, fair and timely disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information and the various compliance requirements.

This Code of Conduct has been prepared by adopting the standards set out in Schedule B of the Regulations in order to regulate, monitor and report trading by its employees (including Designated Persons and their immediate relatives) and other connected persons towards achieving compliance with the regulations.
